

Disclosure of responses

Information provided in response to this consultation, including personal information, may be subject to publication or disclosure in accordance with the access information regimes (these are primarily the Freedom of Information Act 2000 [FOIA], the Data Protection Act 1998 [DPA] and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004).

The Government may publish sections of responses received from organisations, but it will not attribute views or quotations to specific organisations or individuals.

If you want other information that you provide to be treated as confidential, please be aware that, under the FOIA, there is a statutory code of practice with which public authorities must comply and which deals, among other things, with obligations of confidence. In view of this, if you request confidentiality, it would be helpful if you could explain to us why you regard the information you have provided as confidential.

If we receive a request for disclosure of the information we will take full account of your explanation but cannot give an assurance that confidentiality can be maintained in all circumstances. An automatic confidentiality disclaimer generated by your IT system will not, of itself, be regarded as binding on the Department. The Department will process your personal data in accordance with the DPA and in the majority of circumstances this will mean that your personal data will not be disclosed to third parties.

Completing the survey

There are seven sections to this survey and it will take approximately 25 minutes to complete. You may partially complete the survey and return to it at a later date. To do this, you must use the same internet browser and the same computer when returning to the survey.

You do not have to answer all the questions - you can answer as many or as few as you wish and you may move backwards and forwards through the survey to review or amend your answers by using the buttons at the bottom of each page. When you are ready to submit your response, please click on the 'forward' button at the end of the survey. Once submitted, you will no longer have access to your responses.

The closing date for responses is 6th April, 2017 at midday. All partially completed responses will automatically be submitted on the closing date, and responses received after this date will not be considered.

If you require an easy to read or Welsh language version of this survey, please contact albteam@culture.gov.uk
